BIG SKY.

48m OCEANFAST

Designed and built in Australia by renowned yacht builder Oceanfast, BIG SKY has been newly furnished throughout and is now based in the breathtaking waters of Tahiti for the 2025 charter season. One of the Southern Hemisphere's largest and most extraordinary yachts, she offers an unrivalled yachting experience in one of the world's most idyllic destinations.

With a meticulously maintained exterior and expansive deck spaces, guests can enjoy the ultimate in al fresco living. The Sun Deck features a jacuzzi surrounded by a large sunbed bar and U-shaped lounge, while the Upper Deck Aft offers shaded dining — perfect for long lunches. Down on the Main Deck, a more intimate lounging area leads to dual staircases and an easy-access swim platform.

BRIDGE DECK DINING

A wide-angle photograph of a yacht's main deck aft lounge. The deck is finished with light-colored teak planking. In the center, a long, low wooden coffee table holds two small woven baskets containing seashells. Surrounding the table are several pieces of outdoor furniture: a long teal sofa with white and teal pillows at the far end, and several teal wicker armchairs with teal cushions. In the foreground, the back of a teal wicker sofa is visible. The lounge is enclosed by a white railing with stainless steel handrails. The background shows a calm blue body of water and a lush green hillside under a clear sky. The ceiling of the deck is white with recessed circular lights.

INTERIORS

The image shows the interior of a yacht's main saloon. The room is elegantly furnished with a large, light-colored sectional sofa adorned with several decorative pillows in shades of beige, orange, and blue. In the center, a low-profile coffee table holds a vase of white orchids and a small decorative box. To the left, two modern armchairs with dark metal frames and light upholstery are positioned. The walls are finished with dark wood paneling, featuring a large framed artwork of a man in a white shirt. Large windows on the right side offer a panoramic view of a serene lake and lush green hills. The ceiling is white with recessed lighting, and a decorative light fixture is visible on the left wall. The overall atmosphere is one of sophisticated luxury and comfort.
